ABOUT THIS EDITION

This transcription is based on the 1920 G. Ricordi & Co. orchestral edition. Every effort is made to include all pitches at all octaves—either as played by keys with an 8' stop or by using 4' or 2' stops alone or in combination—to remain as faithful to the original as possible. Because of the denser textures and faster tempi in the Passo Mezzo e Mascherada, some background figures had to be omitted or reimagined in this movement—the first three movements, however, transcribed to the organ quite easily. Careful attention is made to preserve the timbre of particular orchestral instruments by pairing them with their organ counterparts, particularly during solo passages. Largely, I include the original articulations of the orchestral instruments in the score. Articulations that do not translate well for the organist are reassigned or omitted.

A word is needed concerning the indication of registrations. All registration changes that occur after the initial setting are placed within rectangles to facilitate easier observation. If an indication does not include a "+" or "-" symbol, then the particular manual or the pedal should be cleared of all prior stops, including any couplers, and set to the given registration.

I have long been an admirer of Respighi's music, and it is my hope that through the immense timbral palette possible on the organ, this beloved suite will be made available to a broader audience, while paying suitable homage to the original version.

Sheet music for organ, page 15, featuring two staves. The top staff uses the treble clef and the bottom staff uses the bass clef. Both staves are in common time and have a key signature of one sharp. Measure numbers 99, 105, and 110 are indicated at the beginning of each section. Measure 99 starts with a whole note followed by a half note. Measure 105 starts with a half note followed by a whole note. Measure 110 starts with a whole note followed by a half note. The music consists of sustained notes with short vertical stems and some grace notes. A dynamic marking "p." (piano) is present in several measures. In measure 110, a label "Gt." is placed above the treble staff, indicating a guitar part. A pedal instruction "Ped: - Bourdon 16'" is shown in a box below the bass staff.
